

Intellectual property rights

We are the owner or the licensee of all intellectual property rights in our Site, and in the material published on it including any images which can be downloaded from our Site and any articles you may request from us that we send to you (the Materials). The intellectual property rights in our Site and the Materials are protected by copyright laws and treaties around the world. All such rights are reserved.

You may print off one copy, and may download extracts, of any page(s) from our Site for your personal use and you may draw the attention of others within your organisation to content posted on our Site. You may download and copy and use the Materials or any part of them for your own personal, non-commercial use and the Materials or any part of them must not be sold or licensed either on their own or as part of another work (for example only, as part of a subscription, a book or a magazine) in return for money.

You must not modify in any way, the paper or digital copies of any content (including any Materials) you have printed off or downloaded and you must not use any illustrations, photographs, video or audio sequences or any Materials or any graphics separately from any accompanying text.

Our status (and that of any identified contributors) as the authors of content on our Site and of any Materials must always be acknowledged.

For the avoidance of doubt, you must not use any part of the content on our Site or any Materials for commercial purposes without obtaining a licence to do so from us or our licensors.

If you print off, copy or download any part of our Site or any Materials in breach of these terms of use, your right to use our Site and the Materials, as the case may be, will cease immediately and you must, at our option, return or destroy any copies of the items or materials you have made.
